Day 3

Participants lead worship or present in Home Church

Whether you are a photographer, painter, techie, musician, actor, director, sculptor, dancer, or author, God has given you a gift, or maybe you are just now discovering your creativity. We want to help you learn how to apply them in your church and in your world! Come fully realize your creative niche. This Creative Worship Retreat is designed to help families and individuals learn more about their God-given creative talents and to find out how you can glorify God...creatively.

Moses said, We're taking young and old, sons and daughters, flocks and herds—this is our worship-celebration of GOD. Exodus 10:9

How to know if this is an event appropriate for your group...

This event requires:

- 1 main worship area large enough to accommodate the group
 - 6' round tables – 1/family
- 5 break-out spaces (minimum) with ample lighting, privacy and work space
 - 1 nursery style room for newborn to 3year olds with cribs
 - 1 children's room with attached bathroom, table space, toys and floor space
- sound amplification in the break-out space if required
- outdoor and/or gym space for games
- dining space

- break time options
- this event is appropriate for all ages assuming there is adequate space for infant, toddler and pre-school care
- track options are dependent upon Shechem staff available and interests of the group

Estimated Expenses:

- break out session supplies - $250
- miscellaneous retreat supplies - $250
- travel expenses – $.0445/mi (or standard federal rate), $10/person/meal
- lodging - $100/double occupancy room or church provided housing if appropriate
 - this event requires a minimum of 7 Shechem Ministries staff plus their children (as it is a “family” retreat)

(some expenses can be lower and rest assured we will be as cost effective as possible while maintaining an excellent program)
